RIVER STILL RISING.

Terrible State of Affairs Along the Lower Mississippi.

A CHANGE FOR THE WORSE.

Localities That Were Expected to Withstand the Overflow Are at Last Under Water—Thousands of People Are Homeless and Utterly Destitute—Many Rumors of Wholesale Drowning.

MEMPHIS, March 17.—The Mississippi river at this point gauges a fraction over 36.5 feet, a rise of over one-tenth during the past 10 hours. The river continues to rise slowly. Two lives are known to have been lost yesterday. Two negroes who live near Marion, Ark., attempted to cross Mound lake in a dugout when they were caught by the mighty current, their boat capsized and they were swept away.

The change in the situation in the past 24 hours has been decidedly for the worse in every respect so far as the flood and the flood victims are concerned. Localities that were expected up to the last minute to withstand the overflow are at last under water. People who thought they were safe from the angry river find themselves hemmed in, and their danger is the greater because of the confidence that prevented them from providing against them.

From every direction come reports of unexpected and unprecedented disaster. Over at Marion and the adjacent country 400 people are reported to be lined up on the railroad track, over which occasional waves sweep that threaten to carry off the desperate people and livestock that there find a precarious household. Along the other railroads leading out of this city into Arkansas a similar condition of affairs exist.

Down on President's island, where it was supposed that all persons in danger had been carried off last night, it is learned that from 50 to 100 people were, this morning, standing in the water and praying for the sight of a boat that would take them off.

From Island Forty came reports that the water is everywhere, that human beings and dumb brutes are huddled together wherever shallow water offers standing places.

There are many other points from which come appeals for aid. It may easily be understood, therefore, that the relief committee which has been established in this city has its hands full of work. This work is being looked after without delay, nevertheless. All the local river crafts have been requisitioned for this duty and Captain Fitch, in charge of the United States fleet, has placed every steam vessel and barge in his command at the disposal of the committee. The Harbin is taking care of President's island, the Abbott and Itaska, looking after Island Forty; the C. B. Bryan, the Minnehaha and the Welcome running far up beyond Marion, in brief the disposition of the vessels. Barges are carried wherever necessary.

Nearly 1,000 people have been brought to this city already from the overflowed country. Only a few of these are white and all such have been able to take care of themselves upon arrival as well as to extend a hand to the negroes who come in their train. But most of the refugees are negroes who saved nothing but the clothes on their backs and may be some stock, the latter being an innumerable rather than an assistance in the matter of finding food and accommodations in town. But the citizens' relief committee have found places to house the refugees and food is furnished them also from time to time. This morning a quartette of ladies arrived on the levee with provender. They brought substantial food. The food put new life into the disconsolate negroes and caused the happy ones to shout the loudest.

Many rumors of wholesale drowning are current, but these can not be verified. A well defined report reached here last night that five colored people had perished near Marion, and a colored man and child are known to have been drowned at West Memphis.

Intense interest in the floods animates everybody in the city. This is evidenced by the great throngs that gather on the levee. Yesterday afternoon it was almost impossible to reach the Bryan wharfbat when she pulled in from Marion.

At Helena the river is 45.8, two inches below high watermark. In that vicinity rain has fallen in torrents for the past 24 hours. The steamer Maude left there late yesterday afternoon for Modoc with a crew of 40 laborers, where the government boat Titan with crew are sacking the levee. The water at Modoc was within about 18 inches of the top of the levee at last reports.

RAIN IN LOUISIANA.

Red River on a Boom, but No Serious Damage Has Been Done.

SHREVEPORT, La., March 17.—A heavy rainfall visited this section of the state causing several washouts on the different railroads entering this city and sending Red river on a booming rise. Although the present gauge of the river does not indicate that there is any present likelihood of a serious and damaging overflow which would inundate the farmlands not protected by the levees, yet the planters are beginning to grow apprehensive as the rain continuing and the river, both at this station and above is rising rapidly.

The levee on the Caddo and Bossier side are in splendid condition and are capable of withstanding any ordinary high water. Observer Charles Davis of the weather bureau stated that the total rainfall for the past 48 hours amounts to 2.60. When asked what he thought the effect of the heavy rainfall at Fulton and at this station would have on the river, he stated that it would undoubtedly make the river rise considerably, but that he was not at all apprehensive of extremely high water.

Legislature to the Relief.

LITTLE ROCK, March 17.—Senator C. A. Haley, who represents the district composed of Chicot and Desha counties, portions of which are covered with water on account of the Mississippi flood, called on Governor Jones yesterday, and after presenting to the governor the unfortunate situation of the people in that section, obtained from him his promise to include in his proclamation calling the legislature in extraordinary session, the necessity of making appropriations for the flood sufferers.

Yazoo River Rising.

GREENWOOD, Miss., March 17.—The Yazoo river is rising very rapidly at this point and the lowlands are now covered with water. The Tallahatchie and Yaloburha which flows into the Yazoo, three miles above here, are reported to be higher than they were ever known and it is feared by many that when these waters reach the Yazoo her banks will be swollen to overflowing.

Tennessee River Is Booming.

FLORENCE, Ala., March 17.—The Tennessee river at this point is still booming, the gauge registering 24 feet 6 inches, which is the highest mark reached since 1886. The water is still rising half an inch an hour. A further rise of two feet is anticipated. Teams are at work on the levee road, which is in danger of being swept away.

NATURAL GAS IGNITED.

Three Persons Dangerously Injured and a Tenement House Destroyed.

MUNCIE, Ind., March 17.—A natural gas explosion, with disastrous results, occurred at 4 o'clock yesterday morning in the 2-story structure in Whitley, a suburb of this city, occupied by P. O. Mull and F. M. Needham and families. The gas escaped from a break in the regulator, caused by one of the walls settling, and filled the house, finally igniting from a stove.

Mr. and Mrs. Mull were thrown across a room and badly injured, the latter perhaps fatally. Her lower limbs were burned to a crisp, and are still bleeding. Her body and face were also badly burned, and her face is so swollen that she can not see, and is past recognition. Mr. Mull was burned about the exposed portions of his body, principally on the face.

Mrs. Needham was burned on the face and hands.

The front part of the building was blown out, and glass was hurled several hundred feet away.

A bad feature of the disaster was that a fire followed the explosion, destroying most of the personal and household property. The building is owned by R. M. Gosby of Indianapolis. There was no insurance on the property.

Bullet-Proof Cloth Tested.

CHICAGO, March 17.—A "bullet-proof cloth," the invention of Brother Casimir Zeigler of St. Stanislaus Polish church, was tested yesterday by the Chicago police. Two pieces of the material, each about a foot wide and two feet long, were shot at for an hour, with the result that only one bullet pierced it, the force being spent to such an extent that the board behind the cloth was hardly dented. The invention is as yet very crude, but promises to do all that is claimed for it. The fabric is rather thick and somewhat resembles leather in texture.

Wrecked by Its Officers.

CHICAGO, March 17.—In a bill filed in the superior court yesterday for a receiver for the Pacific Loan and Homestead association, it is charged that De Witt C. Butts, who until last summer was secretary of the association, is a defaulter and has appropriated $232,000 of the funds of the association. The bill is filed by Bessie A. Woods, one of the shareholders of the association, and she alleges that the concern has been wrecked by officers who wasted its resources.

Shot His Wife and Himself.

OMAHA, March 17.—D. B. Myers shot his wife twice and himself once yesterday evening. Neither of Mrs. Myers' wounds are serious. The husband's wound is in the head and may be fatal. The couple have not lived together since coming to Omaha from Memphis several months ago and Myers has frequently made threats of killing his wife. Last week he drew a revolver to shoot her but was disarmed. He was then placed under bonds to keep the peace.

Suicided on His Wife's Grave.

TRENTON, March 17.—Jacob Knoblanche, retired confectioner of this city, committed suicide on his wife's grave in Greenwood cemetery yesterday by sending a bullet into his head. He had been melancholy since her death.

AMBASSADORS NAMED

President McKinley Makes Several Appointments.

MESSRS. HAY, PORTER AND WHITE

The First Goes to Great Britain as Ambassador, the Second to France in the Same Capacity and the Third to London as First Secretary of the Embassy There. Other Appointments.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The president yesterday sent to the senate the following nominations:

State—To be ambassadors extraordinary and plenipotentiary of the United States: John Hay of the District of Columbia to Great Britain, Horace Porter of New York to France, Henry White of Rhode Island to be secretary of the embassy of the United States to Great Britain.

Treasury—To be assistant surgeons in the Marine hospital service: Hill Hastings of Kentucky, Claude H. Lavender of Virginia, Taliaferro Clark of the District of Columbia.

Besides these a number of promotions were made in the army and navy.

The nomination of Messrs. Hay and Porter to Great Britain and France have been foreshadowed—in fact, positively announced in the recent dispatches from Washington.

COLONEL JOHN HAY.

John Hay is a native of Indiana, 59 years of age. He graduated at Brown university in 1853, and began the practice of law in Illinois in 1861. President Lincoln appointed him assistant secretary, and kept him in that capacity throughout his administration. He also acted as Lincoln's adjutant and aide-de-camp, and was breveted lieutenant colonel and colonel. Entering the diplomatic service in the '60s, he was at various times chargé d'affaires at Vienna, first secretary at Paris, and secretary of legation at Madrid. In 1870 Mr. Hay connected himself with the press, and for nearly six years devoted himself to editorial work on a leading New York newspaper. In 1875 he entered politics, taking an active part in the presidential campaigns of 1876, 1880 and 1884, being then a resident of Cleveland, O. President Hayes appointed him first assistant secretary of state, which post he filled for nearly three years.

Since his retirement from office Colonel Hay has resided chiefly in Washington, where he occupies a palatial home in Lafayette Park, and has devoted himself to literature, with the greatest success, some of his best known works being "Pike County Ballads," "Castilian Days" and a history of Lincoln, written in collaboration with John Nicolay. Colonel Hay has also been a frequent contributor to the highest class of periodicals, and to him has been ascribed the authorship of the anonymous novel, "The Breadwinners," which caused such agitation in labor circles.

GENERAL HORACE PORTER.

General Horace Porter comes of revolutionary stock, his grandfather, Andrew Porter, being one of Washington's most valued officers. General Porter's father was David Rittenhouse Porter, at one time governor of Pennsylvania, and a prosperous manufacturer. Horace Porter was born just 60 years ago in Huntingdon, Pa. He was well educated in his own state, at Harvard, and finally at West Point.

Soon after his graduation from the military academy, he was assigned to duty in the south, then in secession. He was an ordnance expert, so most of his service was in the military service, on the staffs of McClellan, Rosecrans and Grant, where he earned a reputation as a gallant, fearless fighter, as shown by his brevets. He served in the Chickamunga and Wilderness campaigns, and the first assault on Charleston, where he was wounded.

General Grant was greatly attached to General Porter, and made him assistant secretary of war. He surrendered his army commission in 1873, and plunged at once into active business, being first president of the West Shore railroad, vice president of the Pullman Car company and associating himself with other great corporations in a directive capacity. He is well known in the field of literature, being an author of repute and a much sought-after public speaker.

Mr. White, who is nominated for first secretary of the embassy at London, held that position under Minister Lincoln during the Harrison administration, and before that was second secretary of the legation. He is an American, who has lived long abroad; has a large private fortune, and was noted in London for elaborate social entertainments. The position is worth less than $2,500 a year, but it carries with it undoubted social prestige.

The appointment of Mr. White is practically a reappointment, as he had held this office for eight years previous to the beginning of Mr. Cleveland's last administration. He has been in London most of the time since his displacement, and the fact was brought out after his nomination was sent to the senate yesterday that he had rendered Mr. Olney important service in the recent Venezuelan negotiations. The present secretary, Mr. Roosevelt, resigned some time ago.

The plums expected to fall yesterday were the assistant secretaries and assistants to the postmaster general and a public printer. There is a rumor floating over Washington that the delay in making announcements is occasioned by a breaking of the slate, and many predictions may go awry.

DOINGS IN THE SENATE.

Four Hundred and Thirty-Eight Bills and Eight Resolutions Introduced.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—In the senate yesterday 438 bills and eight joint resolutions were introduced. They embraced nearly every phase of public business.

Mr. Allen's batch of bills numbered about 75. They included bills directing the foreclosure of the government lien on the Union Pacific railroad, to prevent professional lobbying; defining the powers of the judiciary; for service pension, etc.

Bills introduced by Mr. Hale related to a cable between the United States, Hawaii and Japan, and to the twelfth census.

Mr. Lodge's bills included those to amend the immigration laws and for a Hawaiian cable.

Bankruptcy bills were presented by Mr. Nelson of Minnesota and Mr. Lindsay of Kentucky.

Mr. Morgan reintroduced the Nicaragua canal bill before the last congress, and also a joint resolution to abrogate the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

Numerous bills relating to the Pacific railroads were presented, including that of Mr. Morgan, to create a board of trustees for the Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroad companies.

One of Mr. Thurston's bills provided for the increase of all pensions.

A resolution by Mr. Frye of Maine, calling for information as to the operation of civil service rules to river and harbor work was agreed to after some criticism of civil service operations.

The chaplain's prayer referred to the devastating Mississippi floods and besought divine intervention and public assistance for the sufferers.

The president's message, which had been laid on the table after being read Monday, was referred to the committee on finance, on motion of Mr. Morrill, the chairman of that committee.

All the measures introduced were referred to the several committees, with one exception, the bill pensioning the widow of Brigadier General Stevenson at $50 per month, which was passed, being the first bill passed at the extra session.

Several hours were spent early in the day on the question of admitting Mr. Henderson, appointed by the governor of Florida, to fill the temporary vacancy from that state. The debate was largely of a legal and technical character concerning the precedents on admitting senators. The case finally was referred to the committee on privileges and elections, where the cases of Mr. Corbett of Oregon and Mr. Wood of Kentucky are pending.

At 3:20 p. m., the senate went into executive session and at 3:27 p. m., adjourned until Thursday.

NEVER SUCH MARCH WEATHER.

South Dakota Is Still in the Throes of a Terrible Blizzard.

HURON, S. D., March 17.—Intense cold has prevailed over the state for three days, the temperature ranging between 18 and 24 degrees below zero, with a keen north wind most of the time. It is the coldest ever known here for the time of the year.

The snow blockade on the northwestern lines is being raised and fuel and merchandise trains are closely following the rotary snowplows to points in distress. Milwaukee lines north from Wolsley and Lake Preston will not be opened for several days and the Great Northern will not get a train through from Watertown to Huron for a week or more.

Activity in the Wool Market.

CHICAGO, March 17.—More wool has been sold out of Chicago for western mills during the last 60 days than during the previous six months.

Indications.

Fair weather, probably followed by rain in the evening or night; westerly, southeast winds.

NO HOPE FOR PEACE.

Nothing Can Prevent a War Between Greece and Turkey.

MACEDONIA THE BATTLEGROUND.

Greece's Plan of Campaign Fully Prepared by the Cabinet—Great Activity Along the Macedonian Frontier—Outposts of the Two Armies Within Forty Paces of Each Other—Latest War News.

ATHENS, March 17.—It is the general belief here that nothing now can prevent war, and that the government has its plan of campaign fully prepared. The cabinet had a long session yesterday as to the attitude to be taken in face of the coercive program of Europe, and it is reported that a decision was reached to take active measures as being the only solution possible for Greece.

The center of interest is now transferred from Crete to the Macedonian frontier. It is evident from the haste which the government has displayed in getting all its available troops off by sea before the commencement of the blockade that there is a strong conviction that they will be needed at once.

With the sea route closed, the transportation of troops must be overland, and this would be an exceedingly slow and difficult process, owing to the lack of horses and the very incomplete railway system in the northern portion of Greece.

Many of the war correspondents have already arrived at Volo, Larissa and other frontier points.

The Greek officers on the frontier find the utmost difficulty in restraining their men and the departure of Crown Prince Constantin for the frontier has been deferred on the advice of the generals in command, who fear that his presence would have a dangerously exciting influence upon the troops.

It is reported that the Turkish forces on the Macedonian frontier are raising a double line of fortifications and being constantly reinforced from Salonica.

Since the publication in the semi-official press of the exposition of Count Muraviev's Cretan policy, which appeared at the moment when it was most calculated to influence the French government, the feeling of the public press of Greece has been one of the fiercest resentment toward Russia. The Greek royal family is also seriously disappointed by the attitude of Russia and France is believed to have sacrificed her Cretan sympathies upon the altar of the Franco-Russian entente.

COLONEL VASSOS FORTIFIED.

Greece Has No Intention of Withdrawing Her Troops From Crete.

CANEA, March 17.—Colonel Vassos has transferred his headquarters to Sphakia, the most mountainous and inaccessible position in the island. This is held to indicate that Greece is firmly resolved not to recall her troops, a step which is regarded as impossible in the face of the strong national feeling. Colonel Vassos will strongly fortify his new camp, which is revictualled for several months. He is now able to await the progress of events.

The admirals of the foreign fleets have not yet proclaimed the blockade of the island of Crete, as decided upon by the powers. The Greek squadron, with the exception of two vessels, has left Cretan waters, and the vessel referred to are preparing to leave.

The Russian consul has received formal instructions to proclaim autonomy for Crete, but the other consuls still remain without them. The admirals consider that this step has been taken too late. After a conference yesterday the consuls addressed notes to their respective embassies declaring that if any portion of the marines should be withdrawn from Canea looting and lawlessness, aggravated by hunger, will dangerously increase.

Program of the Powers.

LONDON, March 17.—According to a Vienna dispatch to The Times there is some curiosity manifested in Austrian official circles as to whether the program of the powers is to hold good in the event of an outbreak of war in Macedonia. The porte has been encouraged, it is said, by several of the great powers to send large bodies of troops to districts along the Greek frontier, and there is no doubt that in the event of war the Turks would be allowed to deal with the Greeks without fear of European intervention.

Situation on the Frontier.

LARISSA, March 17.—The situation on the frontier is now inflammable. At several points the sentries and outposts of the Turkish and Greek forces are within 40 paces of each other.

The Greek fleet has a magnificent position off Skiatho. Volo has been well reinforced by gunboats, torpedo boats and transports. A ship load of 600 Hungarian horses has arrived there.

Doings of the Porte.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 17.—The porte has sent orders to Erzeroum, Armenia, to stop all furloughs among the Redifs (first reserve).

The Hamidieh regiment are to be placed on a war footing.

The ambassadors to the porte have been intrusted with the task of drafting a scheme of Cretan autonomy.

HARPER'S Weekly, one of McKinley's most ardent supporters last fall, has this to say of his tariff schemes:

"As we have already said, Mr. McKinley has at last officially announced, what Mr. Hanna was enabled to announce unofficially some time ago, that there will be an extra session of Congress. The Weekly has already expressed its opinion on this subject, and we return to it only to repeat that we believe that Mr. McKinley is beginning his administration with a mistake. His plea is that the treasury is in need of a greater revenue than it is now receiving under the present tariff law, and he proposes a new tariff agitation for the purpose of procuring the needed income. The futility of the proposed experiment is clear when it is recollected that the present tariff law produces more revenue than the law which bore Mr. McKinley's name. Moreover, it is evident from various signs in the political horizon that the new bill is to be prepared rather for the profit of private interests than for the increase of the public revenue, and that such a bill cannot be pushed through the Senate without an arrangement of some kind with the silver Republicans. Mr. McKinley has no warrant whatever for the assertion that 'nothing has ever been made plainer at a general election than that the controlling principle in the raising of revenue from duties on imports is jealous care for American interests and American labor.' This reads as though Mr. McKinley had passed the campaign in profound slumber. Not only was this not made plain, but it was not in issue. The people elected Mr. McKinley because he was supposed to be opposed to Mr. Bryan's views on money, and his majority actually came from men who are opposed to this view of tariff legislation. A high protective tariff law will not only be a pitiful distortion of the victory that was won for sound money, but, in our opinion, it will further delay the restoration of that prosperity of which Mr. McKinley's friends still profess to believe him to be the 'advance agent.'

"The proposed new tariff law will not increase revenue; and it is not an increase of revenue that the country needs so much as economy. Mr. McKinley indeed touched upon the necessity for economy, but it was in a gingerly and disheartening manner. He should have pointed out the reckless extravagance that marked the closing hours of the Senate's session—extravagance to which the House was so unwilling to assent that Congress adjourned leaving the deficiency bill in conference, while Mr. Cleveland refused to sign three other bills, including the sundry civil bill. "Mr. McKinley's remarks on tariff legislation are as delusive and disturbing as his unmeaning talk of bimetalism, which will only encourage the silver men to renewed activity."

IN SCATHING TERMS.

Senator Rummans Still Roasting the Wily Dr. Hunter—The Republican Senatorial Nominee in Trouble.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 14.—Senator Rummans is not apt to vote for Dr. Hunter. This information comes from such a reliable source that it is hard to doubt its correctness. His friends are strongly urging him not to support the nominee, and he has shown a decided disposition to be guided by their advice and his own inclination to stand aloof.

Senator Rummans' closest friend in Frankfort made the following statement to the Courier-Journal's correspondent: "There is no doubt in my mind, and likewise I believe in Mr. Rummans, that Dr. Hunter said what Mr. Faulkner quoted him as saying. We know that Hunter and his friends last year made direct charges, or else insinuated charges of corruption against Senator Stege when he refused to vote for Hunter until Wilson's successor was elected; that they made the same charges when Speaker Blanford early in the session took a certain course which they did not like, though it was right; that they declared time and again that Senators Hissem and Rummans had been bought over, and that they made charges of corruption against every person whose actions were not strictly in accord with their own. These matters were topics of general gossip during the last session, and no one knows it better than we do. Therefore, we are urging Mr. Rummans not to support Dr. Hunter, and I do not think he will."

Senator Rummans has been heard by half a dozen members, and once to-day in the hall of the Capital Hotel denounced Dr. Hunter in the most scathing terms, and if he votes for him it will be a surprise to those who know him best, and certainly against his own inclination. He has always been a strict party man and naturally dislikes very much to bolt the nominee.

The dyspeptic carries a dreadful load on his back. It seems as if he were really made up of two men. One of them ambitious, brainy and energetic; the other sick, listless, peevish and without force. The weak man weighs the other one down. The dyspeptic may be able to do pretty good work one day, and the next day because of some little indiscretion in eating, he may be able to do nothing at all. Most cases of dyspepsia start with constipation. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of human sickness. Some of its symptoms are sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, foul breath, windy belchings, heartburn, pain and distress after eating. All these are indicative of derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, and all are caused by constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the quickest, easiest and most certain cure for this condition. They are not violent in action.

THE NEW SENATOR'S SEATED,

And the Hunterites Are Now Feeling a Little Easier—Legislative Doings.
Frankfort News.

When the State Senate convened Tuesday Senator Bronston supported his motion to refer the credentials of the new Senators to the Judiciary Committee, without allowing them to be sworn in, by a long speech, in which he disclaimed that such a move was meant to prevent the Senators in question from participating in the election of a U. S. Senator. He declared that his motion was in line with legal precedents and with parliamentary usage for a hundred years past. Senator Jones (Rep.) replied to Senator Bronston. Senator Stephenson, gold Democrat, explained his vote in advance, saying he believed the members were entitled to the seats and that he would vote to seat them, notwithstanding in so doing he was going counter to his party. The Bronston motion to refer the credentials to the Judiciary Committee with instructions to report next Friday, was defeated by a vote of 19 to 11. Holloway, Stephenson, Noe, Ellison, Elmore and Smith, gold Democrats, voted with the Republicans. The motion to admit the new members and allow them to be sworn in was then carried by a vote of 21 to 9. Five Senators then lined up in front of the Clerk's desk and took the oath of office.

Five bills were introduced in the Senate by the following:

Senator Goebel—An act for relief of litigants who have or may hereafter have cases pending in the Court of Appeals.

Senator Bronston—An act for the benefit of an Agricultural and Mechanical College.

By Senator Stege—Amend an act to provide for more perfect uniform indexing public records in counties of Commonwealth having a population of 75,000. Also an act to regulate and increase the number of judges in the Thirtieth district (Louisville).

Senator Smith—An act to amend and re-enact Section 4,306, Chapter 110, Statutes, relating to roads and passways.

In the House Mr. White called up his resolution providing for a committee to investigate the Eddyville penitentiary. After some wrangling the resolution was adopted.

Mr. White sent up a resolution requiring the Auditor to furnish a list of all State officers and employees and salary paid each.

The following bills were introduced:

Mr. Thorn—To abolish the Eddyville penitentiary and convert it into a house of reform.

Mr. Thorn—To provide Clerks for the Judges of Court of Appeals.

Mr. Winfred—To change the election laws.

Mr. Freeman—To prevent mob violence and lynchings.

Mr. Rice, to raise revenue, by placing an additional levy of 10 cents on $100 for three years.

Mr. Price, to reduce salaries of Circuit Judges to $2,500.

Mr. Black, fixing salaries of State officers and making sweeping reductions.

Mr. Morgan, of Washington, to regulate crimes and punishments.

Mr. Stiglitz, to prescribe the duty of the Board of Agriculture and Statistics.

Mr. Stiglitz, to regulate elections.

Mr. Barnett, to establish the Thirty-first Judicial district.

Mr. White, to authorize payment of interest on outstanding State warrants.

Mr. Rice, to refund the State debt.

In all twenty-one bills were introduced in the House.

Lieutenant Governor Worthington remains firm in his decision that no joint ballot can be taken for U. S. Senator until March 23rd. In the meantime the Bradleyites are trying to fix up some scheme to down the "gun shoe" statesman. It is very doubtful whether they will succeed, as Hunter now has the whip hand.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

THE Chesapeake and Ohio will erect another grain elevator at Newport News. It will cost about $250,000. Twelve vessels were loading at Newport News last week with export grain and other freight, and it is likely that the C. and O. will build another pier or so there, as traffic for export is increasing so rapidly that additional piers are necessary to accommodate the business.
